

The MARKETS NOW

members event

- Is the global bull market in stocks ending with QE tapering and the negative January effect?
- Are stock markets experiencing “healthy corrections” or entering bear markets?
- Why is global GDP growth so sluggish and is this a disinflationary or deflationary cycle?
- Are energy prices more likely to rise or decline over the next several years?
- What are the Corporate Autonomies and why are they important for investors?
- Is there a global supercycle in financial markets and what is the most likely long-term outlook for global stock markets?

Iain Little

Iain Little is career portfolio manager, MD and Founder of P&C Global Wealth Managers SA in Zurich, editor of the Global Thematic Investors newsletter and Former Head of Pictet Private Clients London. Iain writes a weekly investment diary, now with its own audio and is a commentator on financial radio programs.

The GTI newsletter analyses the global investment world “thematically” and covers all global stock, bond, currency and commodity markets. Iain will apply GTI principles and investment ideas for both individual equities and funds.

David Fuller

David Fuller is a global strategist and Chairman of Fuller, Treacy Money, previously known as Fuller Money. He is a career analyst, behaviourist and private investor, writing, conducting seminars and lecturing on markets for over 45 years.

David’s session will be informal, inviting questions, asking questions and exchanging views with investors who share the same fascination and enthusiasm for financial markets.
