

The MARKETS NOW

Informal and interactive discussions of global markets inviting questions, asking questions and exchanging views with investors who share the same fascination and enthusiasm for financial markets.

- Amidst uncertainty and disagreement, what are the opportunities and risks for markets in 2016?
- Is the Eurozone beginning to break up, or commencing a promising restructuring phase?
- Is 'Grexit' a viable option for the UK, or would it jeopardise our economic prospects?
- New business models are likely to emerge in healthcare.
- Investment: the players are beginning to emerge and even now we can identify firms likely to benefit from the massive changes ahead.
- Calling the turn in the gold bear market: what to watch out for.
- Income returns in an income free world.

DAVID FULLER

David Fuller is a global strategist and Chairman of Fuller, Treacy Money, previously known as Fuller Money. He is a career analyst, behaviourist and private investor, writing, conducting seminars and lecturing on markets for over 47 years.

DAVID BROWN

Dr David Brown is an investor and medical researcher responsible for several major inventions. He consults globally on the Third Industrial Revolution (TIR), which was the topic of his talk at Markets Now in February 2015. He will start on 18th January with a couple of more personal topics: 1) A few slides on the charity he co-founded, FMVSO, which supports orphans in South Tibet. 2) The latest anti-ageing research findings and actions we can all easily take. 3) He will then continue with his main topic of the evening - the coming transformation of healthcare by digital technologies, 'Big Data', AI and robotics, giving MUCH better healthcare.

IAIN LITTLE
