

The MARKETS NOW

Informal and interactive discussions of global markets inviting questions, asking questions and exchanging views with investors who share the same fascination and enthusiasm for financial markets.

- Will stock markets remain rangebound or under pressure from declining profits and slow GDP growth?
- Are precious metals now in a lengthy medium-term recovery phase or just a hedge against fear?
- Do you think Grexit for the UK would jeopardise or improve our long-term economic prospects?
- Online is disrupting everything - who wins & loses?
- Decent valuations appearing - even for Tech - now the Bubble has burst
- If earnings revisions are the single most important influence on share prices, how are we doing?"
