

The MARKETS NOW

Informal and interactive discussions of global markets inviting questions, asking questions and exchanging views with investors who share the same fascination and enthusiasm for financial markets.

- Seasonal risks and future interest rate normalisations create uncertainty and volatility.
- Nevertheless, a new secular bull market in shares is underway, led by Wall Street.
- Technology and biotechnology will remain among leading performers for stock markets.
- Brexit creates many challenges but should be positively transformative for the UK.
- Interest rates are rising in the USA and may soon rise elsewhere
- Which asset classes have historically performed well in an environment of rising rates?
- Is this rate rise cycle different from others in the past?
- Investment trusts and technology
- Investment trusts and healthcare

DAVID FULLER
