

The MARKETS NOW

- Has Wall Street commenced its first 10%+ stock market correction in over 500 days ?
- What are some of the more promising stock markets today ?
- Are gold and silver still in cyclical bear markets or have they commenced significant recoveries ?
- What's the strongest trend in global investment and why would you be mad to trade against it ?
- Why the unbearable bearishness of the gold crowd in Dubai ?

" I just wanted to add my thanks for a most interesting and intellectually-stimulating evening seminar at the East India Club. You, Iain and Bruce all dazzled in a most inspirational manner and the impact of your joint observations was a powerful one, being delivered in a live arena like that. I have to say that there was also an impressive degree of brain power amidst the punters as well, which led to interesting conversational opportunities across the assembled group (worth attending for alone). So well done to you all for a very rewarding evening "
